

Las Vecinas Welcomes New Provisionals

Beginning its 20th year of philanthropic, civic and social services, Las Vecinas Woman's Club welcomed new provisionals at its first meeting of the year, a luncheon Thursday at the Indian Village restaurant. Presented to the membership by Mrs. Robert Martin, membership chairman, were, in left picture, from left, Mmes. Charles Meng, Lorraine Riegelman, Ralph Wood, Clarence Turner, Gerald Sherman, and Frederick Bromm. In right picture, from left, Mmes. L. S. Chapplear, Rod Freeman, Richard B. Davis, Wayne Dodds, Sr., Bernice Scott and George M. Kelsey. Provision-als will work on various projects during the year to earn points to become full members in June. Mrs. Wallace M. Peterson, the new president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Joseph Jay, first vice president, presented Miss Paula Keener of South High School, who was sponsored by Las Vecinas as a delegate to Girls State last June. Miss Keener, president of the Girls League at South High School, told of her experiences in witnessing the workings of government and of the speech made by Governor Ronald Reagan. (Press-Herald Photos)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 25, 1968

B-1

Nativity Mothers Install Officers

In ceremonies at the Nativity Parish Annex on Sept. 10, the new officers of the Nativity Mothers Club were endowed with their duties for the coming year. Conducting the ritual, in which each new officer was presented with a corsage, were Mrs. Robert Lewellen and Mrs. Thomas Zarro. Installed were Mmes. Henry Sifers, president; Thomas Haire, vice president; Raymond DeMarti, second vice president; Thomas McArthur, secretary; and Mark Salcido, treasurer. Guest speaker, Sister Janette Gallery, spoke on the church and its changes. The Mothers Club, an important part as the center of the parish community, was discussed by Rev. T. O'Byrne. Sister Mary Clancy, principal, introduced the faculty and urged parental support during the year. A report on the Mothers Club first benefit of the year, a "Las Vegas Night" on Oct. 12 at 1415 Engracia Ave., was given by Mrs. Louis Galucci. Hostesses for the evening were Mmes. Laurence Kutas, Andrew Stacy, Gene Carrington and the eighth grade mothers.

New Mothers Club Leaders

Geared for the new year, Nativity Mothers Club installed its new officers at a recent meeting. They are from left, seated, Mmes. Thomas Haire, first vice-president; Henry Sifers, president; Raymond DeMarti, second vice-president; standing, from left, Mmes. Mark Salcido, treasurer; and Thomas McArthur, secretary. Conducting the installation were Mrs. Robert Lewellen and Mrs. Thomas Zarro. (Press-Herald Photo)

Delta Zeta Alumnae Plans Benefit 'Evening of Games'

A gala evening of games is planned for Oct. 8 by the South Bay Alumnae of Delta Zeta at the home of Mrs. Jess Sevy, 4939 Golden Arrow Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula. An atmosphere of gaiety will prevail with Halloween witches, goblins and pumpkins as decorations.

The donations for the games will be sent by Mrs. Richard Davis, treasurer, to South Bay Delta Zeta Alumnae's local philanthropy, the aurally-handicapped children of the South Bay area at Tulita School in Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Delvin Riesenhuber, program chairman, will direct the games, and Mrs. A. E. Altstaeter, president, will preside at a short business meeting of the Delta Zeta Alumnae. Mrs. John Thomas will assist Mrs. Sevy in serving refreshments.

Mrs. Sidney Smith entertained the Delta Zeta Alumnae Bridge Group at luncheon and bridge in her home in Torrance in September.

Wieners Home From Trip In Private Plane

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wiener and 14-month-old daughter, Mindy, have returned from a 2½ weeks trip across the nation in their own plane, a Cessna 182.

The trio spent two days in Chicago as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Amber. From there, they visited friends and relatives in Ohio, Pemberville, Toledo and Bowling Green.

They were guests of honor at a family dinner attended by 25 relatives while they were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oliver P. Walston in Pemberville.

Other stops were made at Niagara Falls, Rochester, N. Y., and Norfolk, Va., where they were guests of Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. Philip Managhan. In Atlanta, Ga., they visited with Mr. and Mrs. James A. Walston.

The final stop, before returning to California, was Oklahoma City for visits with Mr. and Mrs. Perry McTee and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Walls.

No Ties Allowed

"Comfort" was the keynote when Las Madrecitas, auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital, decided to honor their husbands with a very, very informal party. No man will be permitted to wear a necktie and each will be presented with a special gift. Demonstrating what they can expect if they show up wearing a tie are at left, Mrs. Ray Vandiver, a provisional, wielding the scissors, and Mrs. Donald Baer, party co-chairman, collecting the loot. The dinner-dance will be held at Club Bagatelle on Saturday, Oct. 12, at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Jerome Sokolski, chairman, is being assisted by Mmes. Ray Vandiver, Robert Laxineta, Donald Baer, William Theisen, Robert Keiber and Arnold Morrison. (Press-Herald Photo)

Kard Kapers Party Set

Preceptor Alpha Beta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will entertain members of Exemplar Chapters in the South Bay area, husbands and escorts, at their third annual Kard Kapers Party, Saturday evening, Sept. 23 at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Dominick Nardelli, 26813 Hawkhurst Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Assisting Mrs. Nardelli, will be Mrs. Robert Nickelson, social chairman.

Prizes will be given to winners in the Court Whist game which will be played during the evening. Door prizes will also be given and refreshments of apple pie and coffee will be served. Members and their husbands attending will be Messrs and Mmes Andrew Foster, Gene Olson and Mrs. Frances Collins. Gardena; Louis Below, Inglewood; Henry Lightenburger, El Segundo; Louis Zelenay, Los Angeles; Raymond Millhouse and Mrs. Fran Nichols, Hawthorne; Robert Nickelson, Palos Verdes Estates; Dominick Nardelli and Mrs. Jacqueline Pinkney, Palos Verdes Peninsula; Mrs. Blanche McCallum and Miss Martha Oehlerking, Torrance.